MOULTRIE CO. HISTORICAL ATTRACTIONS

Monument at Historic Lincoln Site

On September 21, 1968, a bigger than life size Lincoln Memorial was unveiled at Wyman Park. The monument memorializes Lincoln's final visit to Sullivan when a near riot broke out on the square during Lincoln's senatorial campaign against Stephen Douglas.

Moultrie County Courthouse

The county's courthouse was dedicated in 1906. A monument to Lincoln was erected 15 years later on the lawn and still stands across from the Little Theatre. Inside, a mural featuring a young Abraham Lincoln on the wall of the clerk's office is featured while the words of the Gettysburg Address circle the office.

Moultrie County Heritage Center

Located at 117 East Harrison Street in Sullivan, the museum features artifacts relating to Moultrie County and its people. Access to the museum is free to everyone. Open Saturdays and Mondays from 1-5 and by scheduled appointment.

Sullivan, Moultrie County Area

The area is a great place to live and raise a family. Our community includes the safety and peacefulness of small town rural life and the proximity to larger cities and activities within easy driving distance.

Housing in Sullivan ranges greatly in price and style. Tree lined streets with 100+ year old homes within walking distance to the park and schools are here as well as new developments in semi-rural locations and secluded farm houses on private acreage. Senior housing is also available to fill a wide range of needs from independent living to full nursing care.

Sullivan schools are award-winning and have received the State of Illinois Golden Apple award numerous times. Extracurricular activities for kids are diverse and include everything from the elementary school chess club and glee club to high school sports, scholastic bowl, award winning band and nationally acclaimed show choir. Sullivan also has the Blue Dolphin swim team for ages kindergarten-high school.

Several churches with traditional and modern services welcome visitors and the local Ministerial Association works to help fulfill needs within the community.

Many social groups enjoy doing community service in town including the Sullivan Ambucs, Lions Club, Rotary, Knights of Columbus, Masons, Boy Scouts, and Girl Scouts just to name a few.
